As a member of the National Free Wills Network, we can offer you the opportunity to have your Will prepared for free by a local solicitor. To take part, call 020 7825 2505 or email us with your full address and telephone number.

Once our team has referred you, you'll receive a bespoke information pack with a voucher code and the details of at least two local participating solicitors. You can then contact your preferred solicitor to book an appointment. If your Will is more complicated, there may be an additional cost which will be agreed between you and the solicitor beforehand.

Every March and October is Free Wills Month – your chance to get a simple Will written for free. You can take advantage of this offer if you (or your partner when writing mirror Wills) are 55 or over. Free Wills Month tours England and Wales, so it's worth checking where it will be next. You can also travel to a solicitor in a participating area, even if you don't live there.

Visit freewillsmoth.org.uk during March or October, and enter your postcode. You'll then be able to choose a solicitor and book an appointment (which doesn't have to take place in March or October). Appointments are limited so make sure you book early.

For more information on this offer, visit freewillsmoth.org.uk or call 0333 022 0396 (open weekdays between 9am–5pm).
